SECTION C - Securities

C.1 Type and class of securities being offered

Micro and Commodity Securities are designed to give investors a "total return" similar to that which could be achieved from managing a long fully cash collateralised unleveraged position in futures contracts of specific maturities, less applicable fees. Unlike managing futures positions, Micro and Commodity Securities involve no rolling, margin calls, expiry or futures brokerage.

The Issuer has created and is currently making available for issue 84 different types of Commodity Securities each of which gives investors exposure to movements in one of the Commodity Indices and which can be grouped into 2 different types:

Individual Securities; and Index Securities.

These comprise 54 different classes of Individual Securities (representing 29 different commodities and two different maturities) and 28 different categories of Index Securities (representing 18 different combinations of commodities and two different maturities).

Class and category characteristics

The return on the Micro and Commodity Securities is linked in each case to the performance of the related Commodity Indices as follows:

Classic Individual Securities track Commodity Indices which provide exposure to movements in the value of futures contracts in one type of commodity and due for delivery within a range of one to three months;

Classic Index Securities track Commodity Indices which provide exposure to movements in the value of futures contracts a number of different commodities and due for delivery within a range of one to three months;

Longer Dated Individual Securities track Commodity Indices which provide exposure to movements in the value of futures contracts in one type of commodity and due for delivery within a range of four to six months; and

Longer Dated Index Securities track Commodity Indices which provide exposure to movements in the value of futures contracts a number of different commodities and due for delivery within a range of four to six months, in each case plus an adjustment for the risk free interest rate which accrues to a fully collateralised position in the relevant underlying futures contracts.

C.15 Value of the investment is affected by the value of the underlying instruments

Calculation of the Price

Each Micro and Commodity Security carries a right on redemption by the Issuer to receipt of the higher of the Principal Amount and the price (“Price”), less any applicable redemption costs.

The price of each Micro and Commodity Security on a particular day is based on the level of the relevant underlying Commodity Index on that day adjusted by the applicable fees and the price of a class of Individual Securities is calculated in accordance with the following formula (the “Formula”):

$$\text{Price}(i,t) = l(i,t) \times M(i,t) \times \text{PF}(i,t) / 10$$

where:

Price(i,t) is the Price of an Individual Security of the relevant class on the day on which the Price is being calculated;

i refers to the relevant class of Individual Security;

t refers to the day on which the Price is being calculated;

l(i,t) is the level of the Commodity Index which the relevant class of Individual Security references on the day on which the Price is being calculated;

M(i,t) is the Multiplier applicable to the relevant class of Individual Security on the day on which the Price is being calculated; and PF(i,t) is the Pool Factor applicable to the relevant class of Individual Security on the day on which the Price is being calculated.

The applicable Multiplier is published from time by the Issuer on its website at www.etfsecurities.com/retail/uk/en-gb/pricing.aspx.

This pricing formula reflects (i) the price of the applicable underlying Commodity Index and (ii) fees by the Issuer to the Commodity Contract Counterparty and ManJer. The deduction of the fees payable to the Commodity Contract Counterparty and ManJer are reflected in the Capital Adjustment referenced in the pricing formula.

Pool Factor

The Pool Factor is a number that will always be 1 unless the relevant Micro and Commodity Securities are divided.

Multiplier

The fees for each class are deducted from the Price of such class on a daily basis by the application of the Multiplier.

The multiplier (M(i,t)) is adjusted on each day in accordance with the following formula:

$$M(i,t) = M(i,t-1) \times (1 + CA(i,t))$$

where:

M(i,t) is the Multiplier of the relevant class of Individual Security on the day on which the Multiplier is being calculated;

i refers to the relevant class of Individual Security;

t refers to the day on which the Price is being calculated;

M(i,t-1) refers to the Multiplier of the relevant class of Individual Security on the day before the day on which the Multiplier is being calculated; and

CA(i,t) is the Capital Adjustment applicable to the relevant class of Individual Security on the day on which the Multiplier is being calculated.

At any one time a Micro Security of a particular class has a price equal to one millionth of the price of the corresponding class of Individual Security.

The price of an Index Security is the sum of the prices of the Micro Securities of which it is comprised.

Capital Adjustment

The Capital Adjustment is an adjustment factor included in the calculation of the Multiplier which is agreed from time to time by the Commodity Contract Counterparties and the Issuer. The Capital Adjustment reflects an interest return on the value invested in that type of Micro and Commodity Security and fees payable by the Issuer to ManJer, the Commodity Contract Counterparties and the index providers. The Capital Adjustment applicable to each class of Micro or Commodity Security on any day is published on the Issuer's website at www.etfsecurities.com.

The formula and method of calculating the Price is the same for all classes of Individual Securities, all classes of Micro Securities and all categories of Index Securities.

C.16	Expiration/Maturity date	Not applicable; the Micro and Commodity Securities are undated securities and have no specified maturity date and no expiry date.

C.17 Settlement

CREST

The Issuer is a participating issuer in CREST, a paperless system for the settlement of transfers and holding of securities.

Settlement of creations and redemptions

On creation or redemption of the Micro and Commodity Securities, settlement will occur (provided certain conditions are met) on the third business day (or, with effect from the date of the change to the UK standard settlement cycle expected to take place on 6 October 2014 (the T+2 Implementation Date being the date announced as such by the Issuer) the second business day) following receipt of the relevant creation or redemption request on a delivery versus payment basis within CREST.

Settlement on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange

For the purpose of good delivery of the Micro and Commodity Securities on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, Clearstream Banking Aktiengesellschaft (“Clearstream”) will issue, for each series and the relevant number of Micro and Commodity Securities, a Global Bearer Certificate (each a “Global Bearer Certificate”) in the German language created under German law. Whenever the number of Micro and Commodity Securities represented by the Global Bearer Certificate changes, Clearstream will amend the relevant Global Bearer Certificate accordingly.

C.18 Description of return

The Price of each Micro or Commodity Security reflects movements in the relevant Commodity Index since the previous day on which the Price was calculated, adjusted by deduction of any applicable fees. Therefore, the return for a particular class or category will be based on, primarily, the performance of the relevant Commodity Index.

To achieve this, the Individual Securities and the Micro Securities through which the Issuer obtains exposure to the Commodity Indices are priced in accordance with the Formula. This Formula reflects (a) the movement in the relevant Commodity Index since the last day on which the Price was calculated; and (b) fees payable by the Issuer to the Commodity Contract Counterparty under the Facility Agreement and to ManJer. The deduction of the fees payable to the Commodity Contract Counterparty and ManJer are referenced in the capital adjustment referenced in the Formula.

For Index Securities, the Price is the sum of the Prices of the Micro Securities of which they are comprised.

The Price of each type of Micro and Commodity Security will be calculated by the Issuer as at the end of each pricing day (after the futures market prices for that day have been published) and posted along with the applicable Multiplier and Capital Adjustment on the Issuer's website at <http://www.etfsecurities.com/retail/uk/en-gb/pricing.aspx>.

The Micro and Commodity Securities do not bear interest. The return for an investor is the difference between the price at which the relevant Micro and Commodity Securities are issued (or purchased in the secondary market) and the price at which they are redeemed (or sold).

SECTION D – Risks

D.2 Key risks of Issuer
The Issuer has been established as a special purpose vehicle for the purpose of issuing the ETFS Classic Commodity Securities, ETFS Longer Dated Commodity Securities and certain other securities (the “Short and Leveraged Commodity Securities”), which are issued pursuant to a separate base prospectus of the Issuer dated the same date as the Prospectus, as asset-backed securities and has no assets other than those attributable to the Micro and Commodity Securities and the Short and Leveraged Securities. The amounts that a Security Holder could receive following a claim against the Issuer are, therefore, limited to the proceeds of realisation of the secured property applicable to such Security Holder’s class or category of Micro and Commodity Securities and as the Issuer is a special purpose vehicle formed only for the purpose of issuing the Micro and Commodity Securities and the Short and Leveraged Securities, and as the Micro and Commodity Securities are not guaranteed by any other person, the Issuer would have no further assets against which the Security Holder could claim. In the event that the secured property is insufficient to cover the amount payable to the Security Holder, the Security Holder would suffer a loss.

Although Micro and Commodity Securities are secured by Commodity Contracts and collateral, the value of such Micro and Commodity Securities and the ability of the Issuer to pay any redemption amounts remains partly dependent on the receipt of amounts due from UBS and MLCI under the Facility Agreements, the BAC Guarantee, the Security Agreements and the Control Agreements. No holder has any direct rights of enforcement against any such person.

There can be no assurance UBS, MLCI or any other entity will be able to fulfil their payment obligations under the relevant Commodity Contracts, Facility Agreement, BAC Guarantee, Security Agreement or Control Agreement. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the Issuer will be able to redeem Micro and Commodity Securities at their redemption price which could lead to an investor receiving less than the redemption price upon redemption of their Micro and Commodity Securities.

D.6 Key risks of securities

Past performance is not an indication of expected performance and the investment performance of a Micro and Commodity Security could be volatile. Consequently, investors in Micro and Commodity Securities may lose the value of their entire investment or part of it.

Commodity prices can be volatile and therefore the value of Micro and Commodity Securities may fluctuate widely.

During situations where the cost of futures contracts for delivery on dates further in the future is higher than those for delivery closer in time, the value of the corresponding Commodity Index will decrease overtime unless the spot price increases by the same rate as the rate of the variation in the price of the futures contract. The rate of variation could be quite significant and last for an indeterminate period of time, reducing the value the Commodity Index and therefore the price of any Micro and Commodity Securities linked to that Commodity Index.

Micro and Commodity Securities are priced in US Dollars and their value in other currencies will be affected by exchange rate movements.

There may be days where disruption in the underlying commodity markets means that one or more classes or categories of Micro and Commodity Securities are unable to be priced on that day. This will cause a delay in the application or redemption process which could adversely affect potential or existing investors.

In the event of realisation of collateral from a Commodity Contract Counterparty, the value of the assets realised may be less than required to meet the redemption amount due to Security Holders. Any realisation of the collateral may take time and a Security Holder could experience delays in receiving amounts due to them. A Security Holder may also suffer a loss if the assets realised are less than the redemption amount due.

each charged by way of application of the Multiplier.
